

NOTICE OF EDUCATIONAL TRIPS for 2017-2018 SCHOOL YEAR

School Northwest Junior High

Date: July 18, 2017

During the 2017-2018 school year many 7th and 8th grade students will have the opportunity to travel off of school grounds for various field trips. Parents will be given information sheets which will provide specific details of each event and Blackboard Connect calls will be sent prior to each field trip as a reminder to parents. If you feel you need to keep your child from attending any field trip, please e-mail rios.lauren@iowacityschools.org before the date of the event and alternate arrangements will be made for your child. Not every student will attend every field trip, some are grade or class specific, having consent on file saves paper and time. Field trips include, but may not be limited to, the below events:

- TEAMS competition, Kirkwood
- Seminar trip, Johnson County Crisis Center
- NW DREAM Day, 8th Grade Service Project
- 7th Grade TOAD Day
- 7th Grade Best Day Ever
- Performance music trips
- STEM Field Trip, University of Iowa (7th Grade)
- Open Minds, Rockwell Collins (7th Grade Girls)
- Global Issues Conference (7th Grade)
- Financial Literacy Fair (8th Grade)
- Northwest Gives Back (8th Grade)

Please complete the parent/guardian consent box on this form if you wish for your child to participate in school sponsored field trips at Northwest during the 2017-2018 school year.
