Differentiation

is a teacher’s response to each learner’s needs guided by general principles of differentiation quality curriculum respectful tasks ongoing assessment community building flexible grouping

Teachers can differentiate

Content Process Product Affect/ Environment according to each student’s

Readiness Interests Learning Profile through a variety of instructional strategies