Andrew Lloyd Webber (1948 to present)
English Musical Theater Composer

Webber was born in Kensington, London, United Kingdom, on March 22, 1948. He displayed his talents when he was just a toddler. At the age of three, he played the piano, the violin, and the French horn. By six years of age, Webber started to write his own music. At age nine, he composed six short pieces. Webber also produced little dramas in a toy theater that he built himself. When Webber was in his 20's he was met with success. He teamed up with a lyricist and wrote extraordinarily famous Broadway productions such as Jesus Christ Superstar, Cats, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Evita and Phantom of the Opera. These were only a few representations of his works. Webber is one of the most significant composers in the 20th century.
